COVID-19 CONSIDERATIONS

The Commonwheel Art Festival will be following all the regulations set in place relating to COVID-19 by the city and county government agencies to assure all participating food vendors, artists, our volunteers and the art patrons who come to festival are safe.

The following guidelines are suggested in 2023 by the state to be in place for food service at outdoor events.

- Food vendors must provide single-use or single serving condiments, no pumps.
- There can be no items that many people might need to touch on a table or shelf at the edge of your booth.
- Cold beverages must be stored in an ice chest that is not accessible by the public.
- Use menu boards that can easily be read at a distance from the ordering and serving areas.
- Provide contactless payment options when possible.
- Increase cleaning and disinfection protocols.
- Encourage the use of non-latex gloves or frequent hand washing. Use a fresh pair of gloves after each hand washing.
- Change gloves between tasks such as, taking orders, cooking, accepting payment, and serving food.
- Have one area where orders are placed and another for where the prepared food is handed to the customer.

SALES TAX

- The Commonwheel Artists Festival is required by the City of Manitou Springs, to have a CO Multiple Event License and collect all sales tax under that license.
- Food Vendors must collect 9.03% sales tax on all sales of all food and drink items sold at the festival.
- Food Vendors must pay to Commonwheel Artists all State, City & County sales taxes on Monday, Sept. 4, 2023, starting at 5pm at the Information Booth.

ENTERTAINMENT

1. Our entertainment coordinator will be determining how many musical acts will be playing on the stage in 2023. To apply to play, send an email to: festival@commonwheel.com.
2. Check on the Commonwheel.com/festival website for more details in early April.
